Today's Living: Homeless Students

- - Updated 1 day agoA rising number of students across the country, and here in Arkansas are homeless.

In Oregon, there are over 18,000 students who are homeless, with roughly 8,200 of them in grades K through 5.

According to the National Center on Family Homelessness, Arkansas has one of the highest rates of homeless children in the nation.

In May the Little Rock School District said it had 168 homeless students, but the Department of Human Services says they don't have an exact count of the number of homeless children in Arkansas.
